

CATALAN ALCHEMY

1 EL CELLER DE CAN ROCA, GIRONA, SPAIN

Opened in 1986 by the Roca brothers in Girona, Spain, El Celler de Can Roca, earned its first Michelin star in 1995, followed by two more in 2002 and 2009. Renowned for its inventive take on Catalan cuisine, the restaurant blends tradition with avant-garde techniques. In 2013, it claimed the coveted top spot on The World's 50 Best Restaurants list.
cellercanroca.com

FARM FRESH

2 NARISAWA, TOKYO

This two-Michelin-starred restaurant in Tokyo, named after its chef-owner Narisawa, made it to The World's 50 Best Restaurants list in 2009. A frontrunner of the farm-to-table movement in Japan, the sustainable dishes here are inspired by Japanese, Chinese, and French cuisines. The menus are seasonal and curated. After a complete revamp in 2023, the restaurant now boasts an open kitchen behind a massive wooden counter.
narisawa-yoshihiro-en.com

A WELL OF FLAVOURS

3 KIKUNOI HONTEN, KYOTO

Helmed by a third-generation chef, Yoshihiro Murata, Kikunoi Honten in Kyoto has received three Michelin stars in every edition of the Kyoto Michelin Guide. Located at the end of the city's Gion district, the eatery is famous for kaiseki cuisine, a traditional multi-course Japanese dinner. Kikunoi, which translates to chrysanthemum well in Japanese, draws its name from an ancient well and continues to use its water in its cooking.
kikunoi.jp/en

