A WHISKY LEGEND

4 THE MACALLAN VALERIO ADAMI 1926

Whisky writer Michael Jackson's description of The Macallan as the "Rolls-Royce of single malts" has always stayed with me. Distilled in 1926 and matured for 60 years in cask #263, The Macallan Valerio Adami 1926 60 Year Old is among the world's rarest whiskies. Just 40 bottles were produced, 12 bearing Italian painter Valerio Adami's striking pop art. In 2023, one sold at Sotheby's for £2.187 million—a remarkable piece of whisky history, rarity, and craftsman

A RARE DIAMOND

5 JOHN WALKER & SONS DIAMOND JUBILEE

This ranks among the world's rarest and most exceptional whiskies. Crafted from malt and grain whiskies distilled in 1952 and matured for 60 years, the distinction of John Walker & Sons Diamond Jubilee lies not only in its extraordinary provenance and limited production, but also in the meticulous craftsmanship of its presentation. Housed in an exquisite Baccarat crystal decanter, embellished with Britannia silver detailing and a half-carat diamond, the bottle is as remarkable as the whisky it holds.

JAPANESE ARTISTRY

6 YAMAZAKI THE ROLLING STONES 50TH ANNIVERSARY EDITION

I have always viewed the making of spirits as an art form, and the Japanese approach to whisky defined by precision, patience, heritage, and attention to detail is something I hold in very high regard. With only 150 bottles produced worldwide, the Yamazaki The Rolling Stones 50th Anniversary edition beautifully brings together the artistry of Japanese whisky and the heritage of The Rolling Stones, making it a truly special collector's piece.
