[2] Keep in mind that 3-vectors are not bras or kets.

[3] Recall that spherical coordinates use two angles to represent the orientation of a point in relation to the origin. Latitude and longitude provide another example.