We were acutely aware that 2023 was not 1920. Rahul Gandhi was not Mahatma Gandhi. We were not fighting for liberation from foreign rule. And yet, as historians, we felt in the BJY a whiff of the spirit that lifted India out of a stupor and gave it new life a little over a century ago.

It is for the people of India and their leaders to walk the path that it has lit up.