Bhanwar Meghwansh joined the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS) at the age of thirteen. Since leaving the RSS in 1991, he has been an activist and a journalist chronicling the Dalit movement. He divides his time between overseeing the Ambedkar Bhavan in Sirdiyas and his political work, which takes him across the country. Main Ek Swayamsevak Tha (2019) was his first book.

Amarjit Singh Dulat joined the Indian Police Service (IPS) in 1965 and then the Intelligence Bureau (IB) in 1969, where he served for almost thirty years. At IB he served as the former special director during the turbulent 1990s, until he joined and headed the Research and Analysis Wing (R&AW). He later joined the Prime Minister's Office (PMO) under Prime Minister Atal Bihari Vajpayee. Since leaving the government in 2004, he has been active on the track-two circuit. He is the author of Kashmir: The Vajpayee Years (2015) and A Life in the Shadows (2022), and co-author of The Spy Chronicles: RAW, ISI and the Illusion of Peace (2018).

Supriya Shrinate is the chairperson of Social Media & Digital Communications, Indian National Congress. She is a member of the Congress Working Committee and the national spokesperson of the INC. She contested the 2019 Lok Sabha elections from Maharajganj, Uttar Pradesh. Before joining active politics, she was a journalist for twenty years and the executive editor of the Times Group.

Doraisamy Raja has been the general secretary of the Communist Party of India (CPI) since July 2019. He was first elected to the Rajya Sabha in July 2007 from Tamil Nadu and was re-elected in 2013. Prior to this, he served as the national secretary of the CPI from 1994 until 2019. He was the state secretary of the Tamil Nadu unit of the All India Youth Federation from 1975 to 1980, and was then elected general secretary from 1985 to 1990. He has authored Dalit Question: The Way Forward (2007) and Marx and Ambedkar: Continuing the Dialogue (2018).