battle. The Yatra was not just making us more resilient, but also connecting us in a conducive and constructive culture. We were all, in that sense, individual rivers flowing into a larger sacred river. Today each Congressi who was in the Yatra is a proud franchisee of Rahul Gandhi's 'mohabbat ki dukaan'. Transcending boundaries (both geographical and emotional), the Bharat Jodo Yatra rekindled the flame of patriotism and purpose in our hearts, and is sure to reshape India's tryst with destiny.
