THE MOST WANTED MAN ON EARTH

As the world digested and debated what it was learning about the NSA's surveillance programs, US government officials were attempting to find Snowden and bring him to justice. The Russian government, other uncooperative foreign countries, and spy-savvy Snowden himself would not make that easy. But the US government's reach was long, and Snowden found his options for asylum dwindling.

Cat and Mouse

After learning the identity of the NSA document leaker on June 9, 2013, the Obama administration scrambled to find Snowden and get him back to the United States. They formally sought Snowden's extradition from Hong Kong. Hong Kong officials said the United States' request did not comply with their laws. The US State
