6. Our data precede the rebrand of Twitter to X, and so we use the term Twitter here.

7. Interviews with former senior IMF officials, February 2021, and WTO officials, October 2022.

8. Using Twitter's API, we retrieved user data for followers of the IMF (∼2.2 Mil.) and the World Bank (∼3.7 Mil.). Verified Twitter accounts (prior to November 9, 2022) must confirm the account owner's identity with Twitter, represent or be associated with a "prominently recognized individual or brand," and be active (Twitter 2022). Employing an alternative measure that classifies a user as elite if the account is verified or has at least 500 followers, 9.3 percent of World Bank followers and 11.1 percent of IMF followers are elites.
