

D'Alessandro: "Shane graciously gave me the creative freedom to put my visual storytelling imprint on the scene, as well as come up with original beats. And more than anything else, I wanted to reward that confidence by creating an animatic that he could really be proud of. Shane is one of the greatest storytellers around—talk about having a mountain to climb!"