questions, for the future of Indian democracy, nothing less than a Parliamentary inquiry is needed to address them.

This essay was first published in the Economic and Political Weekly, 17 September 2005.