Notes on Contributors

T.R. Andhyarujina is a Senior Advocate of the Supreme Court of India. He was formerly Solicitor-General of India and Advocate General of Maharashtra. He is a leading authority on constitutional law and public law. He is the author of two books on constitutional law, The Kesavananda Bharati Case and Judicial Activism and Constitutional Democracy in India.

Praful Bidwai, former senior editor of the Times of India, is a freelance journalist and regular columnist for several leading newspapers and magazines in India. He is also Visiting Professor at the Nelson Mandela Centre for Peace and Conflict Resolution, Jamia Millia Ismalia, New Delhi.

Syed Bismillah Geelani is a writer and columnist whose stories and features have appeared in the Urdu-and English-language press in Srinagar and Delhi. He also wrote a column on events in Kashmir for the Malayalam weekly Free Press.

Nandita Haksar was on the defence team of S.A.R. Geelani and represented Mohammad Afzal Guru at the time of filing of the mercy petition by Tabassum, Afzal Guru's wife, and later by Afzal. She is the author of Framing Geelani, Hanging Afzal: Patriotism in the Time of Terror (2007).

Sonia Jabbar is an independent journalist who has been writing on Kashmir since 1995. She is a receipent of the WISCOMP Scholar of Peace Award.

Indira Jaising is a well-known civil rights activist and a Supreme Court lawyer. She was awarded a Padma Shri in 2005 for public affairs.

Vinod K. Jose is the Executive Editor of The Caravan and an award-winning journalist. He has previously worked as a producer from South Asia for public radio stations in the US and Europe.