CLE

mances you should not miss

▲ NOV. 14 | NICE Grounds, Bengaluru
NOV. 17 | Khanapara Veterinary Ground, Guwahati

Guns N' Roses India Tour

Rock icons Guns N' Roses return to India, following their 2025 performances, bringing their unmistakable sound to Bengaluru and Guwahati. Featuring Axl Rose on vocals and piano, Slash on lead guitar and Duff McKagan on bass, the band has shaped the sound of hard rock across generations. Known for marathon sets and electrifying musicianship, the tour promises a powerful live experience for fans.

▼ NOV. 20-22
NCPA, Mumbai

NCPA INTERNATIONAL JAZZ FESTIVAL

The 2026 edition returns for three evenings of world-class jazz, featuring acclaimed performers from across the globe. Italian pianist and vocalist Francesca Tandoi (1) opens the festival with her trio, followed by Grammy-winning American singer, pianist and arranger Nicole Zuraitis (2) with her quartet. The closing performance features vocalist and composer Thana Alexa (3) alongside four-time Grammy-winning drummer Antonio Sánchez (4).

▲ NOV. 22 | Mahalaxmi Racecourse, Mumbai

ANYMA PRESENTS ÆDEN

Electronic music artist Anyma brings his new audiovisual production, ÆDEN, to Mumbai for an immersive open-air experience. Created by Matteo Milleri, one half of the acclaimed duo Tale of Us, the project combines melodic techno with ambitious visual storytelling. Featuring new music and previously unseen imagery, the show expands Anyma's exploration of humanity, nature and technology through large-scale digital art and sound.

▲ DEC. 12 | Behala Sarat Sadan, Kolkata

Marga Music Festival 2026

The festival brings together distinguished exponents of Indian classical music. The line-up features the Kedia Brothers with tabla player Prosenjit Poddar, followed by vocalist Kaushik Bhattacharya with Samar Saha on tabla and Hiranmoy Mitra on harmonium. Padma Bhushan awardee and Grammy winner Vishwa Mohan Bhatt will also perform on the mohan veena, accompanied by tabla player Subhen Chatterjee.

—Compiled by Nikhil Sardana