Active galactic nuclei (AGN), 351–53
Adiabatic index, 149, 200b; see also Resistance to compression Aether:
  Newtonian concept of, 63, 564N63
  and Michelson–Morley experiment, 64–65, 565N64, 565N65
  Einstein's rejection of, 72, 82, 85
Angular momentum, 27
Antimatter, 173, 173n, 340, 359, 439n, 445
Ants:
  T. H. White's Society of, 137, 285 parable of the, 246–49, 247f Astronomers contrasted with other scientists, 319–21, 328, 341–42
Astrophysicists contrasted with other scientists, 319–21, 341–42
Atom, structure of, 170b; see also Nucleus, atomic Atomic bomb, see Nuclear weapons research

Bekenstein's conjecture about black-hole entropy, 425–26, 442, 445–46 Bets by Thorne:
  with Chandrasekhar, about black-hole stability, 296, 298, 298n with Hawking, about Cyg X-1, 314–15, 315f with Hawking and Preskill, about cosmic censorship, 481–82, 481f with Zel'dovich, about black-hole evaporation, 433, 435, 438–39 no bet about time machines, 521 Big bang:
  like time reversed stellar implosion, 268–69, 450
  singularity at beginning of, 465, 478, 487f, 525 gravitational waves from, 380 tiny black holes created in, 50–51, 447–48 wormholes created in, 497
  nonlinearity in, 363b
  failure of general relativity in, 86 quantum gravity as key to, 525 speculations on what preceded, 456, 525 topology as a tool for studying, 464f–65f, 471
Big crunch, 450, 454–55, 464f, 465f, 465, 468, 487f, 525, 581N465
Black-hole binary:
  and observational search for black holes, 304–9, 305f, 308f, 315–19, 315f inspiral and coalescence, 48–49, 358–59, 359f, 394–95, 413 as source of gravitational waves, 48–49, 357–61, 379, 393–96, 413 embedding diagrams for, 358f, 359f
Black hole, eighteenth-century version of, 122–24, 123f, 132, 133, 138, 251–53, 252f, 568N122, 568N123
Black-hole evaporation:
  overview of, 50–51
  presaged by Wheeler's speculations, 210–11, 21 1f, 244–45, 253–54 presaged by Zel'dovich, 429–35 predicted by Hawking, 435–36; see also Hawking radiation
  details of, 446–48
  endpoint of, 482
