

The sessions

40. Safeer C.M. from MoEngage spoke on 'eBPF Without the Magic: From Tools to Your First Program'
41. 'ChatGPT Wrote My Manifest: The Dangers and Joys of AI-Assisted Kubernetes' is what Jay Gondaliya from Red Hat spoke about
42. Niranjan Akella and Sandesh Bandal from 2nd Brain Labs explained 'The Enterprise Context Problem: Legacy APIs to AI Agents, Building the MCP Layer for Enterprise Software'
43. Prasun Kumar from Oppex AI spoke on 'AI On-Call Engineer for Enterprises'
44. A session on 'Scaling LLM Training Beyond Data Parallelism: The Open Source Stack from PyTorch to Megatron' by Sakshi Tyagi from Thomson Reuters
45. B Priyankaa from BFSI Sector spoke on 'From Rules to Agents: Building an Open Source AI-Native Fraud Defence'
46. K. Sathyaseelan and Nalin Sathyan from Zendalona apprised the community about 'Zendalona: Digitally Empowering the Visually Impaired through Free and Open Source Software (FOSS)'
47. Lakshmipathi Ganapathi spoke about his project 'webminal: Free Educational Linux Learning Platform'
48. Sujith S. talked about his project 'Meetily: A Privacy-First AI Meeting Assistant'
49. Raja Shankar Kolluru talked about his project 'Chenile: A Java Framework for Building Moduliths and Microservices'
50. Aboobacker M.K. explained his project on 'CircuitVerse: The Logical Circuit Simulation Platform'
51. Subramania Raja presented his project Observal
52. Aryan Mehrotra talked on 'gofr.dev'